

Herald Democrat

Date: July 2, 2008

Circulation: 21,437

Resources for Veterans

New clinic spells relief for local veterans and their healthcare needs

The approximately 20,000 veterans in the Sherman area can now stay closer to home for their healthcare needs. Tuesday, Sherman celebrated the grand opening of the VC community-Based Outpatient Clinic. The clinic, which is 4,000 square feet, was specifically built to cater to veterans' healthcare needs, and has state-of-the-art primary care and mental health services.